Dr. Don D. Grant, of Waterbury, chairman of the state tuberculosis commission, will lecture in Island Pond early in September on the subject of tuberculosis, under the auspices of the Business Men's Association.

Mrs. Winston Churchill has offered a premium of $10 to be given at the Windsor county fair August 30-31, for the best mounted horse driven past three gasoline automobiles, moving and standing still with engines going.

The hearing of Owen Marrow of St. Albans, charged with selling liquor through an employee to a minor, which was taken up on a continuance before Justice of the Peace John Kearney yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, resulted in Mr. Marrow's discharge.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Charles H. Darling has arrived at his home in Bennington, the first visit in a number of months. He will remain about a week. He attended the Old Home Week services Sunday evening and Wednesday next will be present at the dedication of the Ethan Allen tower near Burlington.

There is a dog in Island Pond who makes daily visits to the railroad station to meet the express train from Montreal and Portland. He can be seen listening for the sound of the whistle and recognizing which way the train is coming, east or west, stations itself just where the cafe parlor car regularly stops and is generously rewarded with a few scraps from this car on each train.

The Caledonia county fair managers have concluded to raise the price of admission to the fair from 25 to 50 cents. This raise was made because of the large number of attractions secured for this season which cost much more than usual. Extra large purses are offered for the races and it is expected that a number of very fast horses will be entered.

Edward Swan, who has been the popular and efficient janitor at Norwich University at Northfield since the relinquishment of that position by the late James Evans, has resigned his post and will complete his duties at the University September 1. Mr. Swan expects to enter the employ of Cannon & Slack in their stone sheds and he will also act as care taker of the Universalist Church.

Myron Waller, a farmer living on the Georgia shore in St. Albans town, is in a critical condition as the result of injuries received Saturday night when he attempted to handle an ugly bull. Mr. Waller went out at 11 o'clock to shut up the bull which had broken loose, and seized the ring in the animals nose. He was dragged about the yard and suffered internal injuries, was badly bruised generally, and was gored in the right knee.

Donald O'Brien, who won one of the college scholarships offered by the Burlington Free Press in its recent educational contest, has announced his intention of going to Holy Cross college. ## Missing from Home for Several Weeks.

As Preston Wiley was looking for his sheep in Colin Lake's pasture at Saxtons River a week ago, he came across Henry Buxton, who had been absent from home about six weeks. He went away some time ago and after roaming around three weeks returned for a week, then disappeared again. Mr. Wiley talked with him and he appeared rational. Men at once began hunting for him but could get no trace of him.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send for stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

STILLMAN STAYED AT MUSTER.

St. Albans Will Now Hire Permanent Fireman to Take His Place.

St. Albans, Aug. 16.—John L. Stillman, the permanent man at the fire station on Kinkman street, who was Friday taken to muster under compulsory process by order of Capt. Lee S. Tilton, commanding Co. B, decided to remain with the company.

Mayor H. Elmer Wheeler and Alderman E. M. Blake went to the state camp grounds Saturday to see Col. J. Gray Estey, commanding the first infantry, Vermont National Guard, in an effort to secure Mr. Stillman's return to this city, owing to present conditions in the department. Colonel Estey said that, if Stillman desired it, he would give him an honorable discharge from Co. B so that he might return to this city. Stillman preferred to remain with the company and is still at the muster. Mayor Wheeler and Fire Chief Cote announced that a fireman will be engaged to take Stillman's place permanently.

Lightning's Curious Work.

During a recent thunderstorm James Carroll's house at Jericho was struck by lightning at several different points. In the parlor a wire was torn from the window, the curtain by which pictures were suspended cut in twain, a door knob rent from the door, and considerable plaster peeled from the wall. In the chamber over the parlor a door was taken off its hinges, a dresser splintered, a mirror broken, and the wall blackened. On the outside of the house a window in the conservatory was broken, several of the plants were scorched, and shingles torn from the roof. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll and daughter were in the house at the time of the accident but were not injured except by fright. The rooms up stairs and down were filled with smoke and for a moment the occupants were certain the house was on fire. The affair is curious in that the lightning was so scattered and left traces in so many places without causing a fire.

Fifty relatives and friends passed the evening of August 8 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Percival, of Coventry, it being their 50th wedding anniversary. Turner; solo, May Bean; poem entitled "Fifty Years Ago," read by Mrs. A. D. Thurber; and interesting remarks relating to the days of "Auld Lang Syne" by Elijah Cowles and Henry Black. Refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Percival were given $85 by their relatives and friends.

THE HUNGRY DEER.

Farmers Collect from State for Crops Eaten and Trampled.

Salem, Mass., August 16.—Cornelius Lucy, of Salisbury, appeared before the county commissioners and stated that deer ruined the crops on his farm in that town. More than 8,000 heads of cabbage in one field were eaten. Last year Mr. Lucy lost over $200 by ravages of deer on his farm.

Under the law the commissioners can appraise the damage to crops by deer and certify the amount to the state auditor, and the commonwealth will pay the bill. Complaints are being filed from farmers in various sections of Essex county of damage being done by deer.
